

Forgive Us Our Trespasses

The God seeking individual, by prayerfully intuitive perception, explores the depths of his soul and gathers all offensive tendencies which are methodically consumed by the flames of fiery wisdom. The innate purity of each of us devoted to truth emerges from behind the clouds of delusion and shines forth as the eradicating Sun of wisdom. For those who possess spiritual readiness, let them experience truth through the direct perception of purifying and enlightening intuition. So it is, when we realize the error of our ways, we are forgiven. We are purified by eternally blossoming understanding. "Joy replaces sorrow, as light replaces darkness, when understanding is rewarded with forgiveness."
