

Like a Birthday

It seems another birthday has arrived,
It marks another year that we've survived.
Sort of like the rising of the tides,
We are purified upon the sands of time.

I'd like to help you celebrate this day,
I'll gain from you, you'll gain
from me, we'll say;
"May life feel happy,
like a birthday, every day."
