

The Transfiguration
Painting by Carl Bloch

Together in Heaven

My dearest friends and family
there are things I'd like to say;
first of all I'll let you know
I arrived here safe today.
I am sending word from heaven
where I'll dwell with God above;
there are no tears and sorrow,
there is only peace and love.

I had to leave you
as my time on earth was through;
loved ones waited for me
just as I will wait for you.
I missed them and I am happy to be with them again;
I want you all to know
I'm here with family and friends.

God gave me many tasks
he wishes me to do;
high up on the list
is watching over all of you.
Don't think I do not hear you because I am out of sight;
remember I am with you
every morning, noon and night.

When your load gets heavy
don't cry too many tears;
then I can whisper to you
what you will need to hear.
I always will be near you
to guide you through each day;

remember when you need me
I am just a thought away.

Our love will build a highway
and our memories a lane;
I'll walk right down from heaven
and be with you again.
Remember when you miss me
and I am on your mind;
although you will not see me
I'll be just a step behind.

When your life on earth is over and your soul is finally free;
believe me when I tell you,
you'll be coming home with me.

2005 Lyric written by Paul Martin.

Classical Version

The music for Together in Heaven was adapted from Beethoven's No. 8 Pathétique by Paul Martin and was produced and arranged by Paul Martin and Daryl Kojak.

Daryl's creativity and musicianship are gratefully acknowledged in helping to make possible this epic musical tale of an ascended Soul who is giving comfort to friends and family who were left behind to grieve.
