

We Trust in God's Eternally Sheltering Love & Guidance

This insight represents the essence of spirituality and embodies the spirit of Christ's teachings.

"We" signifies humanity as being all of God's children created equally and equally loved.

"Trust" is the essential ingredient of faith, the cornerstone of hope and the process of spiritual evolution by which we progress from blind faith and baseless hope to spiritual conviction gained through understanding. When we trust in God's eternally sheltering love and guidance we take comfort in his infinite protection. We lift the veil of delusion that separates us from the peace and joy of God within us. To be sheltered and protected from life's continual onslaughts is an immeasurable blessing. To be eternally guided through prayerfully acquired and magnanimously bestowed intuition is to find solace in the God-given awareness's that allow us to navigate the often treacherous and uncharted waters of life. We are able to gravitate effortlessly toward the peace and serenity of His sheltering love. Whoever wholeheartedly desires the tender protection of Almighty God will be unceasingly enlightened by the infinite wisdom of divinely granted intuition.
